

STUDIO THEATRE APPLICATION

Use of studio theatre is for the presentation of a directed play or other curricular related projects, such as but not limited to workshops, scene work, open mics, etc. Students interested in applying for a slot should plan when would be best for them to do so, but also provide second and third slot choices. Studio Theatre use will be determined for the entire academic year season.

NAME:

CONTACT INFORMATION:

TITLE and AUTHOR OF PLAY (or project):

CAST SIZE (male/female):

RUNNING TIME (ex: 15 min. / under 1 hour / 90 min. / 2 hours):

If unknown, please indicate the length by page numbers

RIGHTS INFORMATION (if applicable):

DESCRIPTION OF PROJECT:

directed play:

(1) bare stage = generally performs on week 3 or 5, with stage blocks and chairs

(2) minimal tech = generally performs on week 5 or 7, with limited set and costumes

(3) full tech = generally performs on week 7, with fully realized design

workshop (please explain)

-NOTE: Playwrights seeking to workshop a full production of their play should apply using the appropriate level of "directed play" from above (with name of Director included).

Playwrights desiring to hear their plays read in a workshopped setting should apply to Playground (offered each term) or explore other avenues outside of the Studio season.

open mic / scene work / other (please explain)

COLLABORATORS* (if applicable):

TECHNICAL or DESIGN NEEDS (if applicable):

PREFERRED TERM & WEEK:

1st Choice: Fall / Winter / Spring

Week = 3rd / 5th / 7th

2nd Choice: Fall / Winter / Spring

Week = 3rd / 5th / 7th

3rd Choice: Fall / Winter / Spring

Week = 3rd / 5th / 7th

ARE YOU WILLING TO SHARE A WEEKEND?:

Yes

No

WHAT COMPELS YOU TO UNDERTAKE THIS PROJECT AND WHAT DO YOU HOPE TO ACHIEVE? (a paragraph or two is sufficient)

*If your application is approved, you will be required to submit designer names, completed designs (where necessary), and signed contracts of all necessary collaborators (SM, designers, etc.) by the 7th week of the term preceding your project. If these contracts are not submitted or the designs are not approved by the end of this week, then the project will be removed from the Studio season or condensed to a bare stage.