

TWILIGHT BOWL

by Rebecca Gilman

Sam is headed to college on a bowling scholarship - but her cousin Jaycee's future isn't looking as bright. In the bar of their local bowling alley, a group of friends celebrate Jaycee's last night in town before she goes to prison the next morning. In a stirring portrait of rural America, a group of young women struggle with the pressure to make something of themselves while navigating their own and one another's evolutions. As they face adulthood, the bowling alley becomes a place to celebrate triumphs, confront challenges, and forge new identities. This new play by Rebecca Gilman questions the blueprint for a successful life and embraces the unknown of the road ahead.

When/Where: TUESDAY, September 10th
6:30 p.m.
Harbach Theatre, CFA

Preparation: No previous acting experience is necessary. You do not have to be a theatre major to audition. All are welcome. Auditions will consist of the following:

- If you are a theatre major = you should present a 2-minute monologue, preferably from a contemporary play.
- Non-majors may choose to either = (1) present a monologue, or (2) perform a cold reading (made available to you at the time of the audition)

Roles: SAM
JAYCEE
CLARICE
SHARLENE
BRIELLE
MADDY

Rehearsals: Actors should be available to rehearse most weeknights from 7:00-10:00 p.m. and all day on the Saturday and Sunday of tech weekend (Oct. 26 & 27). Performances will occur in Harbach Theatre on Oct. 31 and Nov. 1 & 2

Script: To read the play in advance of auditions, a read-only link to the text may be obtained by emailing the director (see below).

Content Notice: Please be advised that this play includes discussions of sex, sex toys, drugs, incarceration, and abortion. It contains scenes depicting alcohol consumption and drug use. Also, there is a brief physical altercation and various moments of harsh language.

Academic Credit: Students cast in this production may receive academic credit. Enrollment in Theatre Participation (THTR 271 or 371) for 0.5 or 1.0 credit is optional. Contact the director after casting if interested in this option.

Questions: If you need further information or have questions about this audition, please contact the director: Professor Jeff Grace at jgrace@knox.edu